

MagnifyGroup Privacy Policy

Our extensive data protection policy underscores the commitment of the Company to top-tier security standards. MagnifyGroup ensures the safeguarding of all personal data, whether pertaining to potential, current, or former clients. The following Privacy Policy delineates how MagnifyGroup manages the collection, handling, and protection of confidential Client information. MagnifyGroup prioritizes security and adheres to industry best practices and cutting-edge information technology to safeguard the personal information of the Client, ensuring their right to privacy remains uncompromised and inaccessible to unauthorized individuals.

Our Pledge to the Client

Recognizing the significance of maintaining the confidentiality and privacy of the Client's Information, the Company pledges to uphold the privacy of their data. Concrete measures have been implemented to safeguard the confidentiality, security, and integrity of the Client's Information.

Information Collection

When the Client applies to open an account with MagnifyGroup, certain information is necessary for the process. This information may be obtained directly from the Client through our Account Opening Application Form or from third parties such as credit reference agencies, fraud prevention agencies, banks, and other financial institutions. It includes personal details like name, address, date of birth, contact details, payment details, and other pertinent financial information. Additionally, the Company may collect information regarding the Client's website usage, such as pages visited, frequency, duration of visits, and trading activities. Periodically, further information may be requested to enhance services or comply with regulations.

Information Usage

The Company will utilize, store, process, and handle the Client's Personal Information in accordance with the agreement and applicable data protection laws. The Client's Information will be treated as confidential and utilized solely for the provision, administration, and improvement of services to the Client, compliance with regulations, and other legitimate purposes outlined in the agreement.

Communication

For the administration of the agreement, the Company may contact the Client via various means such as telephone, fax, email, or post. With the Client's consent, the Company or its affiliates may contact the Client for marketing purposes or market research.

Information Disclosure

Under specific circumstances outlined in the agreement, the Company reserves the right to disclose the Client's Information. This includes situations mandated by law, investigation or prevention of illegal activities, execution of orders, compliance checks, and other legitimate purposes outlined in the agreement.

Security Measures

The Client's Information is stored securely, with access limited to authorized personnel. The Company has robust procedures in place to safeguard and utilize the Client's Information responsibly. While the Company employs reasonable efforts to protect the Client's Information, absolute security cannot be guaranteed due to the inherent risks of internet use.

Information Updates

The Client may update or request deletion of their Information by contacting the Company. Requests will be accommodated, subject to regulatory or legal requirements.

Right of Access

As per applicable data protection laws, the Client has the right to access and rectify any personal information held by the Company. Please contact the Company to initiate this process.

Inquiries

For any inquiries, access requests, or complaints regarding this policy or website security, please contact the Company.

Policy Updates

This Policy is subject to change without prior notice. The Company advises checking for updates periodically.
